

An aerial photograph of Madrid, Spain, taken at dusk or night. The city is illuminated by streetlights and the lights from numerous buildings. In the foreground, the Gran Vía street is visible with its characteristic curved shape. To the left, the ornate facade of the Edificio Metrópolis is brightly lit, featuring a prominent tower with a golden statue on top. In the background, the city extends towards the horizon under a sky filled with scattered clouds.

M A D R I D

- Madrid is the capital of Spain and the most important city of this nation. If you stay a whole day in its streets, you will have a spectacular day!

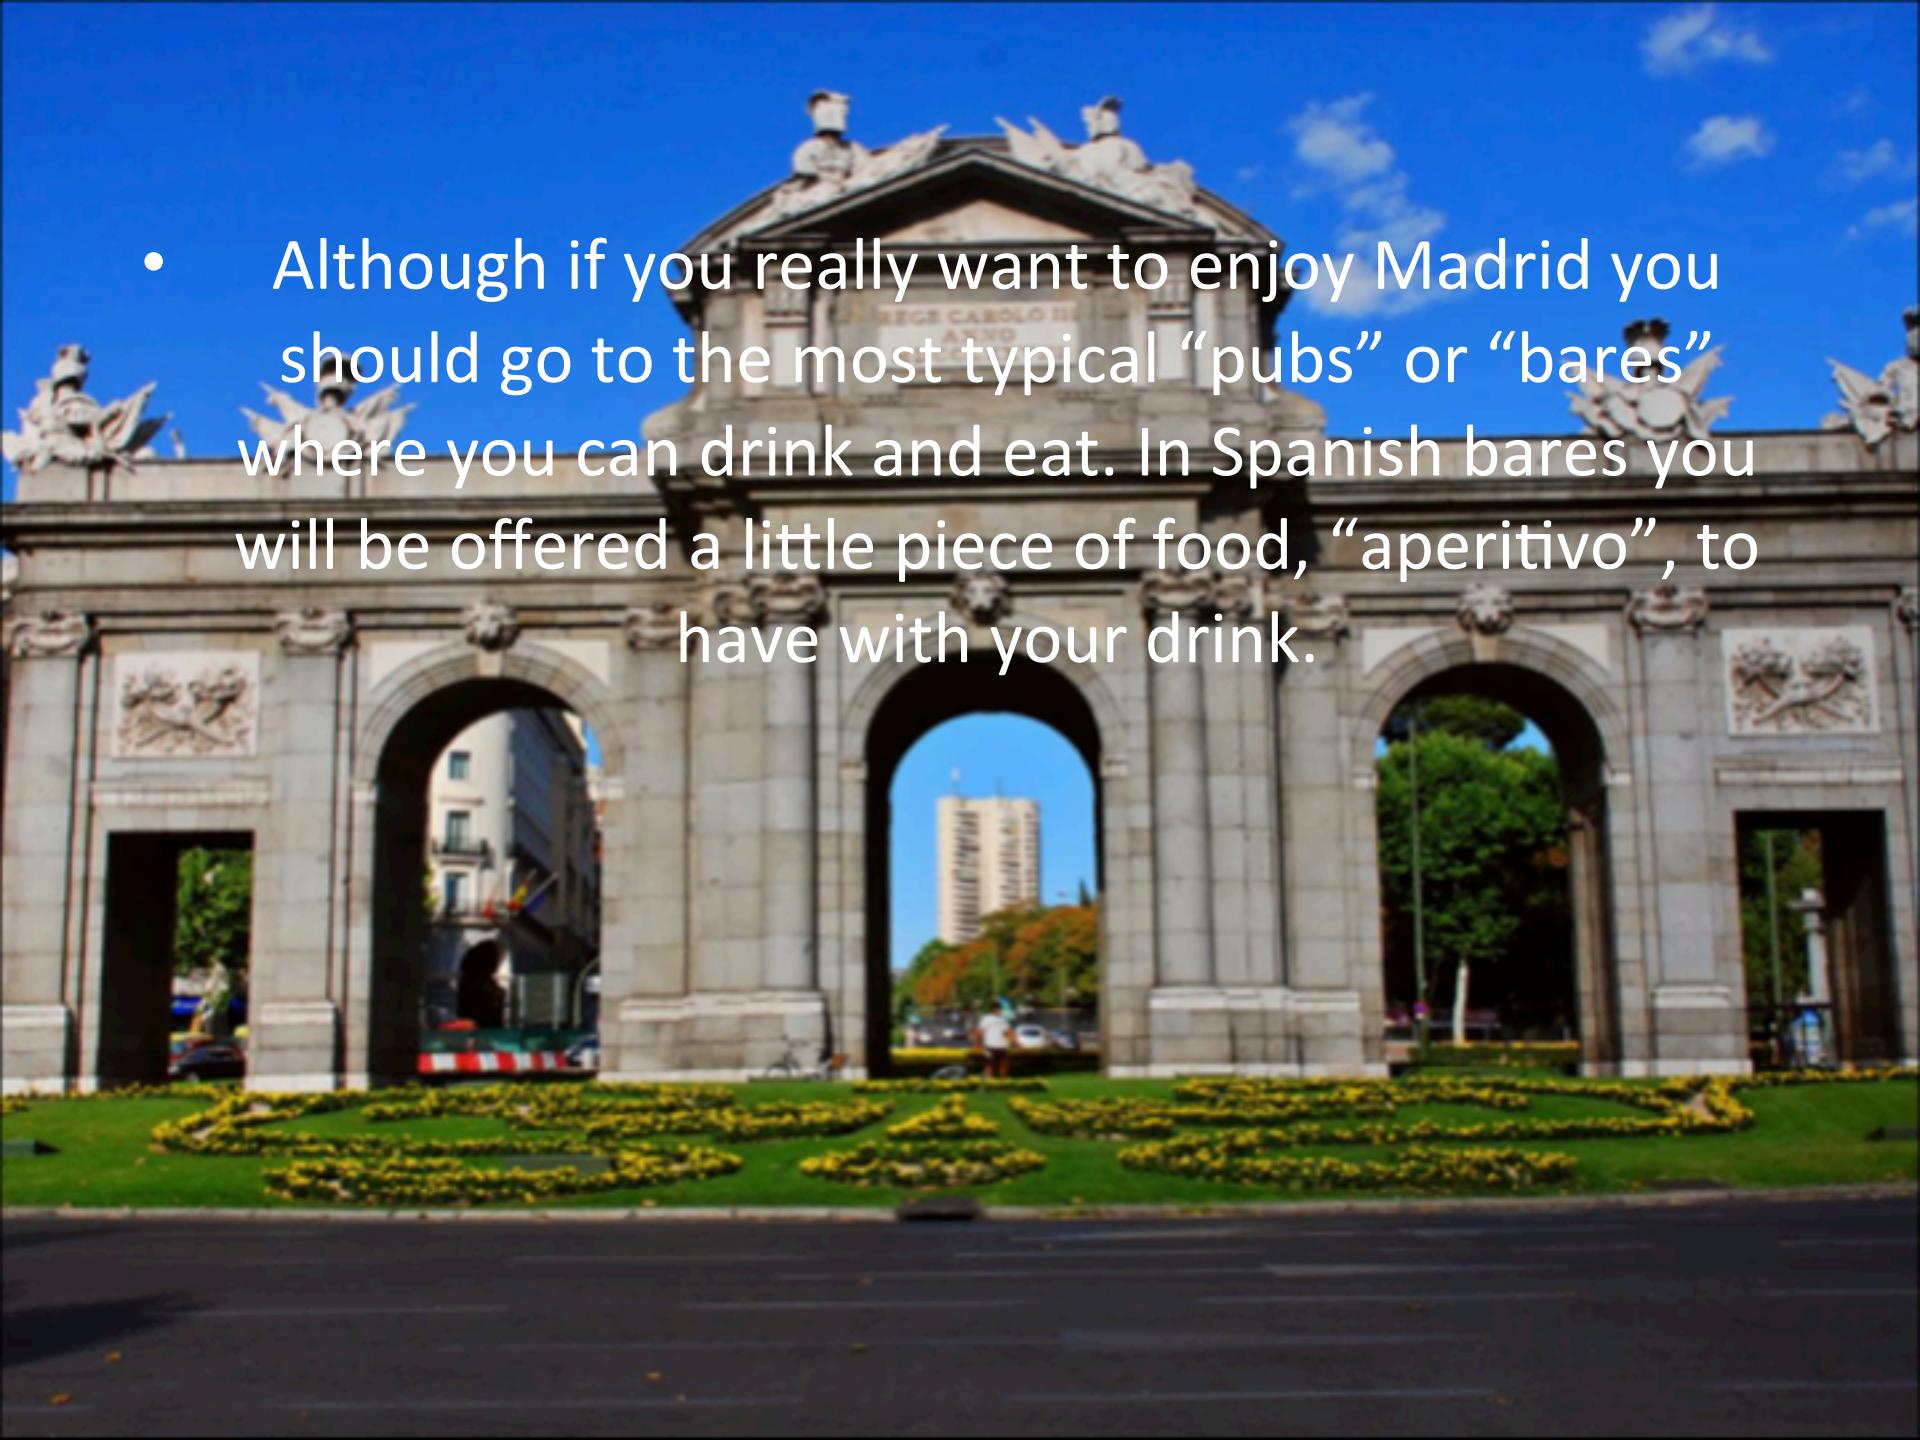

- Madrid is a city where you never feel bored. You can do many different things. For example, you can go to the theatre or have lunch in a restaurant. You can eat food from anywhere in the world. It's a very

- The main activity in Madrid is to visit its sightseeing. You shouldn't leave Madrid unless you have visited emblematic places as “La Puerta del Sol”, “La Plaza Mayor”, “El Parque de El Retiro”, “La Fuente de Cibeles” or “El Paseo de la Castellana”, as well as “La Gran Vía” or “Paseo del Prado”, where you can visit “El Museo del Prado”

- Although if you really want to enjoy Madrid you should go to the most typical “pubs” or “bares” where you can drink and eat. In Spanish bares you will be offered a little piece of food, “aperitivo”, to have with your drink.

- This is the flag of Community of Madrid. A curiosity is its history. The flag is red and it is formed by seven five-pointed stars. They symbolize the Big Dipper and they have five-pointed stars because Madrid is surrounded by five provinces.

- Madrid is a fascinating city because its people, its history and its elegance are wonderful.

“From Madrid to Heaven”

